Dear Soldierier,

I wish we could have been with you at Leiden but that has been impossible. So I trust it was a rest and change for you and that you now feel better. We here are only middling.

The two papers of which you speak (an Education) are probably lying at Hartford. They have not come to me here. I look forward to seeing them.

I hope you saw my Bukhul and Buduh articles in the Encyclopedia; they cost an immense work. I have now finished all my D and F articles; I had none in E. G I have still to write.

I am very glad that your Volksrepen are being translated. The book will be very useful. Best remembrances and greetings to you both faithfully
Wm. B. Macdonald.
